Mr. Devendra Singh Kushwaha extended a warm welcome to committee members and highlighted the institute's unwavering stance against ragging.

He further reaffirmed the core objectives and responsibilities of the Anti-Ragging Committee to ensure a safe and inclusive campus environment.

Agenda 1: Review of Current Measures to curb Ragging:

Members reviewed existing anti-ragging measures including CCTV monitoring, duty rosters of faculty in hostels, and mentorship programs for freshers. Hostel wardens provided a report on the current situation, confirming a ragging-free environment.

Agenda 2: Awareness and Sensitization:

It was proposed to conduct orientation sessions and workshops for both new and senior students during the start of the semester. Posters and banners against ragging will be displayed across the campus.

Agenda 3: Student Interaction:

A mechanism for anonymous reporting via suggestion/complaint boxes and dedicated helpline numbers was discussed and reinforced.

Agenda 4: Monitoring in Hostels and Campus:

Dr. Ashish Ranjan Singh and Dr. Neetu Singh assured continuous monitoring in hostels. Random visits by faculty and committee members will be scheduled during evening hours.

Conclusion:

The Head of the Committee thanked all members for their active participation. The committee reaffirmed its commitment to maintaining a safe and respectful environment on campus.
