Mr. Devendra Singh Kushwaha welcomed the members and reiterated the committee's commitment to a ragging-free campus environment. He reviewed key outcomes from the previous meeting and emphasized timely implementation of decided actions.

Agenda 1: Evaluation of Current Measures:

- Dr. Neetu Singh and Dr. Ashish Ranjan Singh reported continued vigilance and coordination in the boys' and girls' hostels.
- No incidents of ragging were reported since the last meeting.

Agenda 2: Awareness Campaign Initiatives:

- It was proposed to conduct a digital awareness drive using social media platforms.
- Posters highlighting anti-ragging laws and helpline contacts will be updated in all departments and hostels.
- Faculty members will deliver short talks on ragging prevention during orientation and weekly sessions.

Agenda 3: Monitoring of New Admissions:

- The committee resolved to assign faculty members for surprise visits to hostels and common areas during fresher induction weeks.
- A mentorship system will be explored to promote peer support and smoother transition for first-year students.

Agenda 4: Any Other Discussion:

- Dr. Prateek Gangwar suggested the formation of a student volunteer group under faculty supervision to assist in awareness and grievance redressal.
- Mr. Shailendra Singh confirmed transport safety protocols are being followed and drivers have been sensitized to report any suspicious activity.

Conclusion:

The committee expressed satisfaction with the current preventive mechanisms and appreciated the collaborative efforts of faculty and administration.
